

What Your Dollar Buys at ALF

$1/week -- Provides education materials on liver wellness and interactive activity materials for 2 classroom-based Love Your Liver education programs for elementary and high school students

$2/week -- Provides 2 support group sessions that provide emotional support and information to people with liver disease and their caregivers to be conducted

$3/week -- Provides liver disease and liver wellness brochures and other resource materials for participants at one health fair or conference

$4/week -- Supports the implementation of one Treatment Choices Initiative education program for individuals affected by hepatitis C.

$5/week -- Supports a half day of research by an ALF Liver Scholar Award recipient who is working to find cures for liver disease

$6/week -- Funds one Helpline professional who provides information, support and education material to callers to ALF's HelpLine

$10/week -- Supports one in-language THINK B education program and distribution of in-language education materials for Asian and Pacific Islander Americans who are affected by hepatitis B

$20/week -- Supports ALF's advocacy efforts, including testifying on Capitol Hill, and educating and advising elected officials on policies that improve the lives of people with liver disease

$25/week -- Provides one month of support to a Postdoctoral Research Fellowship Award recipient working to find liver disease cures